NEWSLETTER

ENJOY THE JOURNEY!

PRESIDENT'S LETTER:

December, 2022
Issue #16

The 2022 Show Season has come to a close. We hope you all did well and had lots of really good rides with great input from your tests! If you signed up for WDAIL High Point when you renewed your Dues, please send your high point information to Marilyn Weber. She will need a spreadsheet with the show date, horse you are riding, Show name, Level & Test # ridden, Percentage earned, placing and judge's name. You will need your top 3 scores from 3 different judges.

If you signed up for multiple levels, include all the info from each level. If you have any questions, please call Marilyn at (618) 753-3446. You can also check out the information on the website:

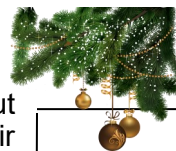

<https://wdaillinois.org/membership-benefits-and-wdail-2019-high-point.html>

The WDAIL member cards went out via email to those who renewed their memberships. Please let Dianne Doll know if you did not get your card. Or if you have any questions please contact her at (618) 910-7946.

The WDAIL board members will get together soon to go over plans for 2023 and decide on a date and place to have the year end award party. :)

Please let us know if you have any requests for the 2023 year. Any clinics you would like to see? Any clinicians you have in mind? Any educational type meetings or clinics?

Merry Christmas! Crystal Welsh

 2022 WDAIL High Point **

YOU MUST BE A CURRENT MEMBER OF WDAIL & WDAA BEFORE YOUR HIGH POINTS ARE SCORED!! There were a lot of people who thought they paid, but didn't. We are now emailing membership cards once your membership is received.

High Points are the average of three of your highest scores from three different judges at three different shows. High Points are by horse and rider. To enroll in High Points, select that on your Membership Form, choose your horse and what Level you want to track. If you ride multiple levels with multiple horses, you will need to sign each one up. $15 per horse/rider/level. For more information, please contact Marilyn Weber at (618) 753-3446.

Your membership number will be your WDAA number with a "-IL" after it. These will be emailed and can be printed off if you would like to keep it with your other cards. They are regular business card size.

We hope this will help keep memberships straight.

WDAIL Rider Medal Program

The WDAIL (Western Dressage Association of Illinois) is offering a Rider Medal Program. This program is offered to all Western Dressage Association of Illinois Member in good standing (current membership with WDAIL and WDAA).

PARTICIPATION: open to current WDAIL members. Scores submitted have to be earned while a current member of WDAIL. Recognized WDAA shows only qualify towards Medals. Register below for the Rider Medal Program. Submit eligible rides by scanning copies of the face sheet of the written test from the judge with the score, date and location of the ride. Judge's signature and the WDAA recognized show number must be included.

- Rider must be a current WDAIL/WDAA member at the time of the medal submission and the time scores were earned.
- All scores submitted must be from WDAA Judges, from WDAA recognized shows.
- Medals may be earned out of order.
- Scores from 2019 forward will be accepted as long as membership requirements have been met.
- Medals may be earned on multiple horses.
- All scores submitted must be 65% or higher with one test from each test level coming from Test #4.
- Scores for each medal level must be from two separate judges with the exception of the Bronze Medal Submission. If turning in two scores from Intro and four from Basic, Intro will need at least one judge and Basic will need two. If turning in six scores for Basic, scores must be from three different judges.
- Scores from online shows will count as half (twice as many rides will be required from online shows – with twice as many judges).
- Application and submission can be filed out and emailed to:
 - mareweb@frontiernet.net
 - Send payment to support@wdailinois.org (PayPal Friends/Family please)
- Submit application, fee and score sheets at one time.
- Submit one application per medal level.
