$1500 Millennial Rising Star Halter Class

Join us for an exciting new concept at the East Coast Egyptian Classic. We are creating an opportunity for the next generation of rising talent to show.

This class has been designed for all handlers age 35 and under, professional or amateur, to show horses at the walk and trot with a presentation stand up.

What makes this class unique? Throw out all prior judging systems you may know.

Emphasis to be placed on true gaits without the breaking, circling, and bouncing we often see.

A presentation that allows the beauty of the horse to shine through with obedience and limited handler interference.

$1,000 to the winner, $500 to second place
Awards through 5th place

Class #31E to be held on Saturday after the Golden Oldies Class

Prize money graciously donated by
Ted Carson, Mike Wilson, and Paul & Sabrina Glans

 - Gait quality 20 points—maintain the gait without breaking, circling, or other disruptions
 - Arabian type 20 points—true charisma, freedom of expression, and exuberance with limited interference from the handler
5. Stand Up Presentation 20 points—display obedience and attention without intimidation, the horse is the focus, not the stand up.
