RULES AND GUIDELINES

NEW FOR FALL 2020 SHOWS

Online Entries ONLY

Online entries and payment will only be accepted by Equestrian Entries. Follow this link → <https://www.equestrianentries.com/login>. Sign yourself up to be a new member. You must also sign up your horse and your trainer. If you do not have a trainer, sign yourself up as trainer. Then, look for the show dates and select our ADA schooling show.

All entries, including non-compete or schooling horses, require a current Coggins, an ADA release, USEF release, and a Triple J release. NO entry will be accepted without all four required documents uploaded to <http://equestrianentries.com/>.

(Tip: If you don't have a scanner, simply take a photo of the signed document with your phone and upload the photo) Once your key paperwork (Coggins, liability releases, etc.) is uploaded, it is saved in your equestrian entries account and available for each show until it expires.

Version 1: We are emphasizing a 'show and go' framework. This means that classes may be run out of sequence and rides from one group scheduled and then another group if this facilitates classes and helps minimize social contact. Use the comments sections of the online entry form for specific scheduling requests or email Suzi at adaentries@gmail.com.

No refunds for any reason after closing date.

Fees: See class list for specific details. Fees are $30.00 per horse/rider combination, per class, for Alpha Dressage Association and Southwest Florida Dressage Association members. Classes E19-23, M24-29, R76-80 are $40.00 per horse/rider combination.

Non-members pay an additional $5.00 per class. Think about joining to save yourself $$ at future shows!

There is a $20.00 office fee per horse/rider combination.

The fee for non-competing (schooling horses) is $20.00

The late fee is $10 per class.

Alpha Dressage now accepts Venmo as a method of payment for shows, clinics and membership. Our Venmo User Name is @Alpha-Dressage Stabling is available: Day stalls are available for $35. Stalls will be assigned as completed entries (entry form, liability release, Coggins and payment) are received. Stall assignments will be posted at the show. You must provide your own feed, hay, shavings, and water buckets.

Schooling: At Triple J there is no schooling in the show arena on the day of the show. There will be no schooling the Saturday prior. (Other venues will offer this)

Footing: Covered clay arena 20m x 60m for training level and above tests. The arena will be 20m x 40m for all introductory tests if the number of entries warrant the change.

Protective Headgear Rule: Anyone mounted on a horse at any time on the competition grounds including non-competing riders, riders on non-competing horses and those competing in all classes and tests must wear protective headgear as defined by this rule and otherwise in compliance with GR801. Any rider violating this rule at any time must be immediately prohibited from further riding until such headgear is properly in place. Protective headgear is defined a riding helmet which meets or exceeds ASTM (American Society for Testing and Materials)/SEI (Safety Equipment Institute) standards for equestrian use and carries the SEI tag. The harness must be secured and properly fitted.

Riders under the age of 18 years must be accompanied by an adult while on the show grounds.

Correct tack will be required as defined by USEF – i.e. smooth snaffle bits – no twisted, wire, roller, or Pelham bits. Martingales, side reins, draw reins, are not allowed. Horse boots and bandages must be removed before entering the competition arena. Dressage whip maximum length is 47.2" (120 cm) including the sash.

Hot weather show attire is allowed. This means any color breeches and polo shirts. T-shirts are not allowed. Age appropriate boots are also required.

Ride times will be emailed to each entrant and posted on the ADA website on the Thursday prior to the show. Classes will NOT run in order and rides may not be consecutive within the class to assist social distancing.

Crew App In order to reduce reliance on the show office for certain tasks, ADA will be using the Crew app to advise everyone of stabling, ride times, and other important announcements. Invites to download the app will be sent as entries are received.

Visit www.crewapp Look for this logo  and create your sign in to be ready.

Awards: Ribbons through sixth place. A high point award will be presented to the highest scoring rider of the day. Scores will count toward ADA Year-End awards for the current competition year.

Any topics that are not specifically addressed in the above guidelines or any exceptions to the guidelines must be discussed with and approved by the show manager. Any violation of the show rules can result in your exclusion from this and future ADA events.

DOGS MUST BE LEASHED AT ALL TIMES.

ALPHA DRESSAGE ASSOCIATION REOPENING PROCEDURES

As ADA begins the process of welcoming events back for the 2020 event season, the organizers and venues shall implement the standards below to help ensure the safety of all our members. ADA will continue to evaluate the status of the Coronavirus pandemic and update these guidelines as needed. Together, we can keep each other healthy.

What you can expect ADA to do:

- Ensure that our events, participants and guests comply with all applicable federal, state and local regulations, requirements and orders as they relate to mass gatherings and sporting events.
- Establish social distancing configurations in areas where guests or participants may congregate. Designate with signage, tape, tables, chairs or other means, a six-foot distance for guests and staff. Space seating six feet apart for staff and volunteers.
- Encourage social distancing practices throughout the entire show grounds or event space.
- Provide Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) to staff, volunteers, and other team members.
- Strongly encourage everyone to wear masks at all times unless they are mounted on a horse or calling a test for a competitor.
- Utilize online forms, apps, or mobile forms of payment when possible to reduce contact with participants and guests attending events.
- Provide additional wash stations or hand sanitizing stations within areas of your layout when possible.
- To not allow staff, volunteers or other individuals involved with an event on the property if they are showing signs of illness, including cough, fever, shortness of breath or loss of taste.
- To not host hospitality functions that encourages a gathering of people.
- Include additional USEF waiver information on show entry forms

What ADA Asks of Competitors and Attendees:

- All guests must comply with all applicable federal, state, and local regulations, requirements, and orders as they relate to mass gatherings and sporting events.
- Give fellow competitors and event participants their space. Always avoid close contact with others by standing or sitting at least 6 feet apart.
- Do not congregate. Avoid congregating in areas such as the show office, barns, ringside, bleachers, seating, restrooms, or other areas.
- Masks should be worn at all times unless mounted on a horse or calling a test for a competitor.
- Frequently wash hands with soap and water for at least 20 seconds, especially after going to the bathroom, before eating, and after blowing your nose, coughing, or sneezing.
- Avoid touching your eyes, nose, and mouth.
- Cover your cough or sneeze with a tissue and dispose of properly.
- Stay at home if you are sick or experiencing symptoms of illness, including fever, cough, shortness of breath, or loss of taste.
- Stay at home if you have pre-existing health conditions or if you fall into the high-risk category for COVID-19.
- If you have been in contact with someone who has tested positive for COVID-19 within the last two weeks, (14 days) stay at home.
- Clean and disinfect frequently touched objects and surfaces using regular household cleaning spray or wipes.
- Abide by event's rules, regulations, and protocols.
- Practice good personal hygiene habits.
- Avoid using cash when possible for payment. Bring a credit/debit card instead or use mobile forms of payment.

RELEASE OF LIABILITY

ALPHA DRESSAGE ASSOCIATION

I, the undersigned, wish to participate in the Alpha Dressage Association events that occur between 9/1/2020 and 11/30/2020.

I understand that during portions of these events I will be in close proximity to one or more horses under circumstances which may expose me to some risk of injury, because of the nature of horses, the facility and the activities in which I will be engaged.

In consideration of the Alpha Dressage Association allowing my participation in this event, I, on behalf of myself and my heirs, administrators, personal representatives, assigns, children and spouse, if any, do hereby agree to hold harmless, release and discharge Alpha Dressage Association, which includes it's officers, directors, members, agents, representatives, affiliates and insurers, of and from all claims, demands, causes of action and legal liability whether known or unknown, anticipated or unanticipated, due to the ordinary negligence of Alpha Dressage Association. I shall not bring any claims, demands, legal actions or causes of action against Alpha Dressage Association for any damage or loss due to bodily injury, death or property damage arising out of my participation in these events.

The Alpha Dressage Association has put preventive measures in place due to the spread of COVID-19, however attending this event could increase your risk of contracting the coronavirus. By entering the facility, you voluntarily assume all risk and agree that you will not hold the Alpha Dressage Association liable for any resulting illness or injury.

WARNING

Under Florida law, an equine activity sponsor or equine professional is not liable for an injury to, or the death of, a participant in equine activities resulting from the inherent risks of equine activities.
